INTERLINE TRAVEL

For interline journeys involving travel on other carriers flights in the ticket, the MSC (Most Significant Carrier) baggage rules will apply (based on IATA RESO 302).

Effective since 1 April 2011: if the geographically longest or most significant stretch of your journey is not operated by Fly One, but by another airline, this airline's rules may also apply to Fly One flights or Fly One flight numbers.

In case of code-share flights performed by Fly One partners, other rules imposed by the airline operating the flight may apply.

In order to be informed, we recommend you to consult the respective airline website.
