BOOKING AND TICKETING GUIDELINES

REBOOKING/REROUTING/REISSUE PROCESS

Option 1 for passengers who already know their new travel dates (INVOLUNTARY/VOLUNTARY):

- Cancel original flight segments
- Book new flights segments according to given above instructions
- Exchange ticket involuntary/voluntary and add proper information in the endorsement box/OSI element

Option 2 for passengers who do not yet know their new travel date within one year after date of purchase (INVOLUNTARY/VOLUNTARY):

- If possible, cancel original booking
- We recommend that you keep the PNR active if such function is available in your GDS
- If the GDS does not offer a function for holding the PNR or if the PNR is expired, create a new PNR at time of the new booking and perform the reissue with the existing ticket

Option 3 for passenger who want to exchange ticket to EMD (INVOLUNTARY):

EMD-VOUCHER (TRAVEL AGENTS: DSIT D/997 LO: VCHR F/OLA)

- Fare box – with reissue indicator, Tax boxes - all taxes from the ticket must be shown as paid (old ones) in tax boxes (each tax separately), Total box – no ADC (reissue with no additional collection)
- Endorsement/restrictions box – NON REF/COVID-19 OUTBREAK- remark must be added
- EMD must be issued in the same currency which is shown in the ticket as payment (currency shown in equivalent, taxes, total box) e.g. ticket issued and paid in EUR – reissue and EMD issuance must be performed on the market where EUR is valid default currency
- EMD is valid for reissue to the new ticket within two years after the date of issuance
- New ticket recalculation – fare difference if any and new taxes (not shown on EMD) have to be collected
- EMD-international can only be accepted on international travel/ticket, EMD-domestic can only be accepted on domestic travel/ticket
- If the ticket change to EMD is not activated in the GDS that travel agent is using, please contact dedicated LO helpdesk team in order to realize the request. LO HELPDESK will send to the Agent issued EMD
- EMD is not refundable. Can only be used for future travels as a payment method
- Involuntary ticket change to EMD allows the EMD to be redeemed for another name (different than the original Passenger)
- Specific procedure regarding EMD-VCHR F/OLA issuance and processing in LO own offices can be found in separate document.
